BODY MASSAGES AND THERAPIES

Vinotherapy

Vinotherapy offers spa treatments, boasting the health benefits of wine by-products such as organic grape extracts, seeds, skins and stems, micronized yeasts and grape essential oils, etc.

The origins of vinotherapy can be traced back to France in the early 1970s when pharmacologist Joseph Vercauteron discovered that grapes were rich in polyphenols and had beneficial effect on skin. Since then, in addition to drinking a glass of wine for heart health, wine therapy has become a hot trend in the spa industry.

Polyphenols are a major contributor to the benefits of Vinotherapy. They are a powerful antioxidant which acts as a free radical scavenger – defending the skin, promoting tissue elasticity and creating a more youthful appearance. Vinotherapy has also been shown to stimulate collagen synthesis while supporting capillary health. Wine by-products soothe the skin and possess anti-inflammation properties. Vinotherapy can accelerate wound healing and even stimulate new cell growth. According to Lynn Curry, senior vice president of Natural Resources Spa Consulting, polyphenols are 10 000 times stronger than vitamin E and 50 times more effective, can reduce 80% of the free radicals which are responsible for wrinkles and skin ageing, and can improve circulation by strengthening blood vessels. There are also anti-bacterial and antiseptic benefits.

Deep Tissue Full-Body Massage is a type of firm manipulative bodywork that uses specific massage techniques to release deep layers of tissue, including major muscle groups, tendons and fascia: the protective layer of connective tissue that surrounds muscles, bones and joints.

Compared to Swedish massage or relaxation massage, Deep Tissue Full-Body Massage is firmer and uses more pressure. Our well-trained therapist, however, work very slowly and within your tolerance to stretch muscle layers without causing pain or damage.

The massage focuses on the major muscle groups along with joints and tendons that are susceptible to straining or injuries. The primary goal of Deep Tissue Massage is to reduce pain and discomfort whilst improving the body's ability to heal itself. The therapy is effective with chronic degenerative and inflammatory musculoskeletal disorders, overuse soft tissue injuries as well as posttraumatic and postoperative conditions. The benefits of massage include releasing chronic muscle tension and lowering cramps and spasms, rehabilitating injured muscles and alleviating pain-dominant conditions, regulating blood pressure, treating anxiety and improving athletic recovery and performance.

Salt Floatation

The Uva Nestum Wine & SPA provides the unique opportunity to free yourself from the sensation of space and time and by enjoying a state of weightlessness, to bring yourself back into harmony.

Floatation is both an amazing experience and a therapy with scientifically proven restorative and curative power. The phenomenon is essentially a state of deep relaxation, achieved by means of a Floatation Chamber, specially designed to block out all external distractions such as sound, sight, tactile sensations and gravity. The solution in the Chamber contains a high concentration of Epsom salt (magnesium sulphate). The supersaturated solution creates an environment similar to that of the Dead Sea, letting you float effortlessly. Outside distractions fade away, you feel like you are floating in space, and your mind drifts into a state of deep relaxation.

Numerous studies have shown that Floatation reduces stress and anxiety, regulates blood pressure, alleviates pain and muscle tension. The regular application of Floatation calms the body's overly stimulated systems, restoring its chemical and metabolic balance.

Floatation Chamber therapy

40 min – BGN 76.28

The Floatation Chamber Therapy is appreciated for its curative and restorative effects. Screening all the external stimuli, the Floatation Chamber brings you to a state of sensory relaxation. With no pressure on your muscles and no distractions for your senses, you are enabled to switch off and de-stress your body and mind completely.

It is suggested that the restorative power of Floatation Chamber Therapy is 4-5 times stronger than that of sleep. The ultimate in relaxation and stress management.

The Art of Hammam

The omnipresent spa culture is actually tens of years old, dating back to the Neolithic Age when nomadic tribes would find relief from the bitter cold by soaking in the natural hot springs. The world's earliest known public baths – built around 2500 BC – were also used as temples, since water was considered sacred and bathing and cleanliness were linked to religious beliefs. Much later, around 300 BC, the practice of public bathing was adopted by the Romans, and since then, the tradition has spread around the world, taking on various forms with differing customs and etiquette for each destination.

Hammams – the traditional steam bath of the Middle East – were likely derived in part from Roman and Byzantine baths – an export of the Roman Empire that extended to Turkey in the 7th century. Popularized around 600 AD, the Hammam was a vital social institution in any Middle Eastern city for centuries, playing a central role in promoting hygiene and public health. In some regions of the Oriental world, for example in Syria, Tunisia and Morocco, the Hammam is still an integral part of community life, serving as a place for personal hygiene, relaxation and socialization.

Inspired by the concept of extreme cleanliness and sublime relaxation, the Traditional Hammam Ritual at the Uva Nestum Wine & SPA is truly an amazing spa experience that cleanses and purifies mind and body, promotes inner peace, and brings about a complete sense of renewal.

Traditional Hamman Ritual

55 min – BGN 150.60
EUR 77.00

The Traditional Hammam Ritual is associated with significant detoxifying and beautifying effects. The human skin is the major organ of elimination, and as the heat and steam open up pores and promote profuse perspiration, the eliminative, detoxifying and cleansing capacity of the skin is dramatically increased. Plus, the skin releases a considerable amount of endorphins under heat and steam stimuli, promoting an overall de-stress effect. Following the intense perspiration, a special scrubbing mitten is used to exfoliate dull skin layers and boost toxin removal. Next, your body enjoys a fragrant and relaxing foam massage, finishing the Ritual with refreshing contrast showers.

The Oxy System® Diamond Peel Microdermabrasion also minimizes the appearance of acne scars, stretch marks, age marks and pigmentation; removes the blackheads, tightens the pores and prevents skin from being oily.
